

Publishing and Printing for YOU

Bureau Celebrates International Literacy Day

On Thursday 8th September 2022, the Bureau in collaboration with the Kenya National Library Services (KNLS) and Elimu Fanaka celebrated the International Literacy Day with learners from nine Public and Private Schools within Voi Sub-County.

The event, themed "Transforming Literacy Learning Spaces" took place at the Kenya National Library Services offices in Voi, and was graced by the Sub - County Director of Education, Mr. Newton Okwatsa, National Council for People Living with Disability (PLWD), Fatma Kadzo, Elimu Fanaka team and KLB's Area Sales Manager, Coast Region, Doris Kabira.

Learners participate in a group discussion during International Literacy Day.

The International Literacy Day was instituted by the United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO), as it seeks to remind the international community of the importance of literacy for individuals, communities and societies, and the need for intensified efforts towards more literate societies.

The day began with a variety of activities which saw teachers and learners participate in reading aloud excerpts from fiction books and spelling relays

The exercises culminated in a telephone-word call, aimed at assisting learners develop their listening abilities. Points and rewards were distributed to each group in order to promote a reading culture, a love of books and educational activities that make school interesting.

KLB's Area Sales Manager, Coast Region, Doris Kabira makes her presentation during the event