Kenya Literature Bureau

Foreword

Greetings!

I am pleased to introduce you to Kenya Literature Bureau. This Corporate Profile is a useful tool that will enable you get to know our products and services better.

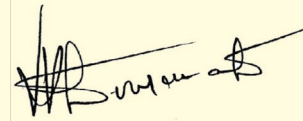

As home to some of the world's best authors, researchers and experts in the book publishing and printing industry, we pride ourselves in providing high quality knowledge materials and other printing services that are unmatched in the region. KLB has invested heavily in new technology and human resources for high quality prints, swift and cost-effective production, strong author support programmes and a nurturing environment to work, learn and grow.

Already, our publications are getting recognition at home and abroad. The Bureau has presence in the East Africa Region and has published books for the Rwanda and Uganda markets.

The Bureau has also established partnerships in areas of institutional printing targeting County Governments, ministries, agencies and the private sector. We are also keen on product diversification to meet the ever growing needs of our customers.

KLB was recently awarded of ISO 9001:2015 QMS recertification and continues to be the best performing state corporation under the Ministry of Education.

Our promise is to continue Publishing and Printing for YOU.

Giving Back

Kenya Literature Bureau prides itself in being a government publisher and printer of quality knowledge material. Premised on this, the Bureau runs a campaign dubbed ‘Twachapisha Mwasoma’.

The aim of ‘Twachapisha Mwasoma’, coined from the Bureau’s mandate of publishing and printing for you, is to ensure an improvement in literacy among school-going children in Kenya, especially in marginalised communities.

Environmental Conservation

Kenya Literature Bureau is a key proponent of environmental conservation.

Our efforts have seen us participate in the annual World Environment Day and lead tree planting drives with partner schools and agencies around the country.
